

EPHA's Professional Development Programme (PDP)

Introductory Week of Training and Presentations
+ Master Classes every six weeks!

When: October 2011 – April 2012

Where: Brussels, Belgium

☞ Engage with key actors in public health policy making at EU level

☞ Learn about advocacy, communication and the European Union

☞ Visit the European Institutions

*“I loved the atmosphere, speakers gave us many practical tips, it was a valuable support.”
Former participant*

☞ Develop your social & professional networking skills

☞ Practice your presentation and public speaking skills

☞ Improve your communication skills

☞ Meet your peers

☞ Build a social network

*“information that you should definitely know while working here in Brussels – we learned how politics really works”
Former participant*

Contact EPHA: alison@epha.org/ 0032 (0) 2 233 38 72

This training programme is FREE for participants from EPHA member organisations. Participation costs €650 for non-EPHA members. Organisations will be required to sign a Memorandum of Understanding.